

Linking Land Use and Water in the Los Angeles Region

A Workshop of the Local Government Commission, CSU San Bernardino Water Resources Institute, and the Los Angeles and San Gabriel Rivers Watershed Council

September 13, 2007 9:30 am - 4:00 pm
Center for Healthy Communities, California Endowment

How and where we grow has a direct impact on the quality and reliability of water in California. Join local officials and water and land use professionals for a day-long workshop about integrating water and land use. Sessions will discuss strategies, explore case studies, and engage participants in dialogue about ways to coordinate land use and water management.

Topics in the Land Use/Water workshop include:

- Water and Land Use - What's the Connection?
- The Ahwahnee Water Principles
- Planning for Water-Wise Growth
- Sustainable Site Design Strategies (LID)

Speakers Include:

- Bill Fulton, Ventura City Council
- Lynn Lipinski, Metropolitan Water District
- Bart O'Brien, Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden
- Paula Daniels, Los Angeles Board of Public Works
- Mark Grey, Building Industry Association
- Tim Brick, Arroyo Seco Foundation

Workshop attendees will receive a copy of the Local Government Commission's resource guide, The Ahwahnee Water Principles: A Blueprint for Regional Sustainability.
